

Top 5 Ways To Be An Effective Leader In Turbulent Times

01

Maintain A Positive Mindset

Avoid the tendency to go negative. A positive mindset is foundational for success. Nothing can be achieved unless you believe it can.

02

Put Optimism Into Action

Optimism is having confidence in the future success of events. This confidence is necessary to inspire and rally your workforce.

03

Adopt A Meaningful Purpose

Employees who feel a greater sense of purpose are more likely to ride out the times of volatility and be there to help companies recover.

04

Be Transparent

Leaders need to provide accurate, authentic and timely information regarding challenges, strategies and expectations.

05

Build Trust

The most powerful way for leaders to build trust is to show up in a highly visible manner and take charge or “walk the talk.”
